The role of a Mobile Security Supervisor

As a mobile security supervisor, you will help maintain GardaWorld's service standards in several client sites by coaching, mentoring and supporting front-line guards. You will conduct on-site visits, respond to alarms and incidents, conduct mobile patrols, and act as the first contact after hours of work for clients and security personnel.

This role is ideal for an experienced security professional who can build strong relationships, promote accountability and deliver attentive customer service.

Schedule: Rotating days and nights (0800-2000 / 2000-0800). This is a 24/7 post, including public holidays.

Pay and benefits

- Starting salary of $23.00 per hour
- Company-provided uniform at no cost
- Career Opportunities with one of Canada's largest private security companies
- Continuing training by the GardaWorld Academy
- In-person training in de-escalation, conflict resolution and the use of force
- Opportunities to develop leadership skills and to advance management
