The role of a Tactical Security Guard

This work calls for close observation, good interpersonal skills, sound judgment and the ability to anticipate and respond to risks.

It's more than just a security role. It is an opportunity to gain valuable practical experience in response, conflict resolution and public safety, making it an excellent springboard for those interested in law enforcement, corrections and emergency services.

As a tactical security guard, you must be able to move throughout your shift, patrolling in environments such as retail stores, airports, security operations centers and more.

Pay and benefits

- Competitive 20$/hour hourly salary
- Paid training and continuous professional development through the GardaWorld Academy
- Several shifts are available, with flexible scheduling.
- Clear career advancement opportunities within GardaWorld, including specialized and leadership roles
- Full-time and part-time opportunities
- Company-provided uniform at no cost
- Gain valuable practical experience in security operations, incident response and public safety
- Work in dynamic environments where there are no two days of the same time and each change offers new challenges and learning opportunities
