The role of a Hotel Security Guard

Requisition # 251217

What matters most in this role is your ability to adapt smoothly to a dynamic host environment. You stay calm under pressure and are proud to provide a safe and welcoming experience for each guest.

As the hotel's security guard, your responsibilities will vary depending on the daily operations and special events in the property. By providing exceptional service to clients and managing access control to patrol and surveillance systems, you must respond professionally, carefully to details and sound judgment. Your ability to anticipate situations, manage incidents discreetly, and ensure the safety of customers, staff and property is essential.
