The role of a Mobile Patrol Operative

As a mobile patrol officer, you develop valuable skills that provide a solid basis for careers as a police officer, special gendarmes, enforcement and emergency officers, which requires physical preparedness, situational awareness and the ability to remain alert, maintain a visible presence and respond effectively to changing situations.

Through regular patrols and alarm interventions, you develop transferable skills in risk assessment, de-escalation, incident response, radio communications, reporting and evidence retention. These experiences strengthen your ability to make sound decisions, communicate professionally and contribute to public safety.

Pay and benefits

- Competitive Pay: Hourly wage of $19.75 - $20.25
- Paid Training: Get the training and support you need to succeed.
- Pay by post: no deduction for meal breaks.
- Employee Benefits: Access to employee benefits, including an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for you and your family.
- Travel time: Kills and Thurs: 0900-1700
- Uniforms provided: Free uniforms, including annual retraining or replacement training, when needed.
- Professional Development: Opportunities to develop within GardaWorld and explore career opportunities in the field of public safety and security. Opportunities such as sector supervisor, regulator and mobile coordinator.
