The role of a Casual Security Guard

Looking for a flexible opportunity where not two days are the same? Join GardaWorld and become a member of a team that takes pride in protecting people, property and communities. Whether you are building your career safely or looking for a rewarding opportunity to put your skills to work, it's your chance to make a significant impact while gaining valuable experience.

As a casual security guard, you will help with creating safe, welcoming and secure environments. You will remain active throughout your shifts, interact with various people, carry out regular patrols, monitor activities and respond to situations with professionalism and confidence. Your ability to communicate effectively, stay alert and think about your feet will help make a difference every day.

At GardaWorld, we believe that our staff is our greatest strength. You will have the opportunity to work with a support team, develop your security skills, gain experience in different environments and be part of a company that values integrity, trust, vigilance and respect.
