Texte de l’annonce originale

Looking to work for a well-established and rapidly growing company?

Seeking an environment equipped with state-of-the-art technology?

This job opportunity is for you! We are currently looking for forklift operators for our new distribution center in Valleyfield!

As a forklift operator, you will primarily be responsible for loading and unloading trailers, containers, and railcars.

Your day-to-day responsibilities will include:

Operating the forklift while adhering to all safety standards

Loading and unloading merchandise according to the company’s established procedures

Verifying item counts and quantities for each transaction

Completing the appropriate documentation following loading/unloading

Moving merchandise safely at all times

Following all company-issued health and safety guidelines

Ensuring compliance with established quality standards (product, equipment, materials)

Meeting the company’s performance and productivity standards

Using a scanner to complete transactions in the WMS

Participating in inventory counts

Performing other related tasks

Schedule:

Evening shift, Monday to Friday, from 14:00 AM to 22:00 PM

What we’re looking for:

A valid forklift operator certificate

Experience operating various types of forklifts (Clamp, Fork, Raymond, etc.)

Experience working in a distribution center (an asset)

Experience using a scanner and WMS system (an asset)

Strong awareness of workplace health and safety

A positive and determined attitude

Due to current C-TPAT policy, the selected candidate will be subject to a background check

Working at XTL means:

100% employer-paid group insurance after 3-month probation

Access to a group RRSP after the probation period

Competitive salary

Location in Valleyfield

A schedule that supports work-life balance

A clean warehouse with brand-new equipment

Annual allowance for safety footwear
