The position

In this role, you provide peace of mind to clients by providing customized mortgage solutions and advice. Your ability to develop relationships with both internal and external partners is crucial to your success, particularly within the community and realtors' offices. Further, you build client loyalty through your keen desire to provide exceptional and personalized service, while your proven motivation and entrepreneurial sales style allows you to drive the business results you desire.

Responsibilities

- Culture local business opportunities and seek new clients through building relationships within the community and your influence centres
- Develop a loyal customer base by providing outstanding mortgage advice and financial solutions
- Success in your personal sales results, while working with RBC partners to anchor your external activities
- Take the initiative to provide advice and solutions to clients, by meeting their individual needs
- Remain mobile to be accessible and accommodate clients' preferences

Qualifications

Requirements

- Minimum 3 years of proven commercial success, ideally in financial or real estate services
- A strong network in your community, resulting in referrals, new clients and increased activities
- Proven ability to build confidence and maintain long-term customer relationships
- Ability to cultivate strong relationships with internal partners
- Self-start who works independently and seeks answers
