The position

RBC Digital's team is a dynamic and innovative group. We are looking for a highly qualified and experienced Android developer to join our team. As an Android developer, you will oversee the design, development, maintenance and modernization of our mobile applications for Android platforms. You will work closely with our interfunctional teams to identify and prioritize the requirements of the project and provide high-quality solutions that meet our business needs.

Responsibilities

You will be a key contributor to the mobile development efforts of one of our teams working on the RBC Digital Team.

- Development of features to develop the functionality of mobile applications
- Provide expertise in technology and application development – Responsible for analysis, design, coding, testing, monitoring and deployment
- Participate in code review to ensure the quality of code provided by the team
- Collaborating with cross-functional teams to implement features and to resolve issues
- Continuous improvement of application, find ways to simplify and refactor code
- Continue to advance by proactively learning emerging technologies and potential obsolescence to address vulnerabilities and foster innovative solutions.
- Collaborate with operating and infrastructure teams to promote code to production and ensure excellent performance and reliability.

Qualifications

Requirements

- 5+ years of professional development experience Android with Kotlin.
- High understanding of Android SDK, Jetpack libraries (e.g. ViewModel, Paging, Navigation, Room), Jetpack compose and addictive injection frames like Dagger/Hilt.
- Experience with architectural models such as MVVM, MVI or Clean Architecture.
- A solid experience with RESTful APIs, GraphQL or other web services.
- Strong understanding of Material Design principles and ability to implement complex UI/UX designs.
