The position

We are looking for self-motivated, motivated and entrepreneurial people to join our RBC Insurance field sales team.

As an accredited Life, Health & Wealth Advisor (HLLQP/LLQP) you provide integrated life insurance planning and advice to your existing network of referrals and new RBC client acquisitions. Your drive to understand the full suite of RBC Insurance Life, Whole Life, Living Benefits, & Wealth products enables you to provide valuable solutions to your clients based on their needs. Alongside your own prospecting and networking activity, you are fully supported by internal partners who work to help to deepen your client relationships through effective opportunity spotting and honest sales practices.

We are proud to promote a culture where people and ideas are rewarded and teamwork is encouraged. When you succeed, we succeed. Join us!

Responsibilities

- Connect with clients through discovery to better understand their life events and offer comprehensive insurance and financial advice that aligns with their current and changing needs
- Independently prospecting, developing and developing a new business book through targeted outreach, networking and strategic relationship building activities.
- Promote a first customer mindset in a digital environment by meeting customers when it is the most convenient for them
- Develop and deepen customer relations with the use of Salesforce and other compliant customer/electronic tools
- Contribute to your sales team's success and be responsible for achieving your individual sales goals.
- Increase your external networks by taking advantage of market opportunities and references from approved centres of influence
- Review individual activity results on a regular basis and adjust activities when needed to meet objectives
- Pursue your vision of RBC as one of the most reliable and prosperous financial institutions

Qualifications

Requirements

- Business development and skills development with objective-oriented attitude and strong ambition to succeed
- 2+ years of professional sales experience
