The position

We are looking for a senior manager to lead the funding oversight activities and support the governance activities of the AML transformation program. The ideal candidate will have strong accounting experience (advantaged by the CPA) along with executive engagement and program governance experience.

Responsibilities

- Project Approval Request (PAR) and program funding: Own the PAR process and manage program funding, including tracking spend, forecasts, and variances.
- Investment Review Board: Prepare and manage the Investment Review Board (IRB)'s (IRB) submissions, documents and decisions.
- Executive Engagement: Work directly with senior managers, providing a clear overview of finances and implications for the scope and delivery of programs.
- Reports on the Status of Management Achievements: Prepare concise and accurate reports on the status of accomplishments, risks and funding.
- Planview reporting: Produce and maintain program reporting in Planview.
- Project Risk and Compliance: Support project managers in the conduct of various risk assessments, privacy and compliance (e.g., IRAP, AEAR and RAD).

Qualifications

Requirements

- An accounting background, with strong understanding of program finance and funding
- Strong written and verbal communication, with the ability to tell a compelling story from complex data
- Command of both the numbers and the detail of what the work delivers
- Experience interfacing with senior executives
- Discretion when handling sensitive investment and funding information
