The position

As a Branch Manager, you are a local market leader, motivating and coaching your team to create a memorable experience for clients. Inside and outside the branch, you capitalize on emerging market opportunities and act as an RBC Ambassador within the community you work in. Sharing common goals, purpose, vision, and values with other RBC partners, you build relationships and encourage collaboration across all roles, along with steward digital enablement and multichannel usage. As a team leader, you support the ongoing development of staff through consistent routines to ensure a high level of employee capability and engagement.

Responsibilities

- Provide results and support new customer acquisitions through multiple channels, including your own team and local partners
- Lead change and allocate resources to meet community needs, increase sales, revenues and market share
- Ensure strong employee participation through recruitment, talent management, development and career planning
- Inspire, orchestrate and pioneer superior retail excellence to provide a memorable customer experience
- Coat your team on customer advice and education, problem solving and prevention at the first point of contact, and plead for digital activation and multichannel use
- Take appropriate action to address deficiencies identified through compliance reviews and reports, operational effectiveness and credit assessments, and compliance reports

Qualifications

Requirements

- Mutual Funds accreditation (IFIC or CSC) and minimum 2 years of licensed mutual funds sales experience within the last 3 years
- Completed an acceptable mutual fund branch management exam offered by the CSI, or ability to write an exam within 4 months of start date
- Minimum of 3 years in a people management role
- Entrepreneurial business acquisition mindset
- Ability to use digital channels, raise awareness among clients and ensure your team allows clients to access RBC digital
