The position

Job Description

As a Branch Manager Advisor, you fulfill a critical role in the branch with 40-50% of your time spent providing advice to clients as a Financial Advisor and 50-60% in a Branch leadership role. As a local market leader, you are responsible for the retail performance within a Branch focusing on business growth including new client acquisition and enhancing RBC’s ability to acquire and deepen client relationships. As a Financial Advisor, you have a breadth and depth of expertise across everyday banking, investments, and credit, with the ability to fulfill on a robust Advice Experience on both complex personal and business needs.

Responsibilities

- Manage a team that offers exceptional customer experience by leading with advice and taking full advantage of RBC's ability to provide appropriate solutions to meet our clients' needs and our business' financial situation.
- Champion of digital activation by proactively educating our clients to use, while leading with advice, serving digitally wherever possible and encouraging our clients to interact with us in their channel of choice.
- Lead your team from the front, actively engaging clients inside and outside the industry, providing complex advice solutions and modeling key behaviours by focusing on teamwork to meet our client's needs.
- Stay connected and active locally in your community, and motivate your RBC team and partners to proactively communicate with clients and influence centres
- Strategically manage the capacity of the consulting team by leveraging the skills and capabilities of advisors, mobility and understanding the weekly/monthly traffic flow to stimulate contact with clients.
- Role model, coach and champion of our leadership model. Constantly demonstrate empathy, kindness and take the time to understand circumstances, motivations and concerns in all interactions with employees, colleagues and clients
- Talk about it and talk about inclusion and create conditions where team members and clients are valued and appreciated; team members bring their best to work, feel a strong sense of belonging and realize their full potential, regardless of their identity.
- Develop and train your team to improve skills and capacity. Focus on employee movement through skill levels to stimulate performance in the current role and allow future career progression.
